SUNDAY NEWS.

THE VIRGINIUS AFFAIR.

NO SALUTE REQUIRED BECAUSE THE VIRGINIUS WAS NOT ENTITLED TO AMERICAN PROTECTION.

RUMORED TROUBLE BETWEEN SPAIN AND ENGLAND.

WASHINGTON, December 21.—It has been known for sometime that the Spanish government has submitted evidence with regard to the steamer Virginius and her claim to the flag of the United States, and that the President had submitted this evidence to the Attorney General for his opinion thereon.

It seems now to be understood in official circles that the Attorney General has given the opinion that the vessel had forfeited the right to bear the flag of the United States, and that at the time of her capture, she was carrying it without right and improperly.

LATER.—As the Viginius affair is now understood no salute to the flag will be required from Spain on Christmas day. Our only satisfaction will be a formal disavowal from Spain of any intention to interfere with our national rights.

The United States will proceed against the Virginius and all connected with her, for violation of the neutrality laws. It is claimed by Spain that the papers upon which the Virginius cleared were obtained by perjury.

NEW YORK, December 21.—A special dispatch dated Key West, December 20th, says: Information reached here from Havana yesterday which, if authenticated, is highly important. It was rumored there that serious complications in regard to Cuba have arisen, it is understood, between the Spanish and British governments, but precisely as to what the difficulties are does not yet appear, but it is certain the British West Indies squadron is to be speedily and largely increased.

The Havana authorities state that the English "government intends some interference in Cuban affairs, and in such a manner as to complicate the relations of that government with Spain. Admiral Scott looks for the arrival of our European squadron in a few days, when Admiral Case, unless retrieved, will assume command.

The Virginius passed here yesterday to the north, in charge of the Ossippee, in a leaky condition.

LATER.

Since the last dispatch was sent, it has become known here that the British Consul General at Havana has received dispatches from Lord Granville to instruct all naval commanders in the West Indies to immediately rendezvous in Cuban ports. It is stated that in official circles it is certainly known that the British Government will assuredly demand the punishment of Burriel The British admiral has left for St. Thomas where he expects to be relieved.

KEY WEST, December 21.—The Colorado, Powhatan and Manhattan arrived here this morning.

WASHINGTON, December 21.—The State Department has no information of the British and Spanish complications.

MONDAY'S NOON NEWS.

THE WORKINGMEN.

SERIOUS TROUBLE IN CINCINNATI AND CHICAGO—DIVISION OF WEALTH DEMANDED —COMMUNIST TALK.

CINCINNATI, December 22.—Two meetings of laborers have been held. The German meeting denounced the President as in league with the capitalists. Carl Ross, the Austrian agitator, said the condition of the workingmen was worse here than in Germany. The Irish meeting contented itself with a denunciation of the city government. Both meetings were slimly attended.

NEW YORK, December 22.—A Cincinnati special says the attitude of the working men there causes a feeling of insecurity and apprehension.

Henry Genit, convicted of fraud in connection with a ring, has been in the custody of the Deputy Sheriff since last Friday when, Genet obtained leave to go up stairs to see his wife. The Sheriff slept and Genet is non est.

CHICAGO, December 22.—The laborers' meeting last night was very disorderly. The sentiments that the day is approaching for an equitable division of wealth was loudly applauded. The unemployed will march to the court-house to-night. Grave consequences are apprehended.

At a meeting of workmen, addresses were made in the English, German and Polish languages. They urged employment by the city, when other sources of work failed, otherwise the city should supply necessities

COPENHAGEN, December 21.—The gas men are on a strike. The city is dark.

A FESTIVE FUNERAL PARTY.

ST. LOUIS, December 22.—President Grant, with the persons who attended the funeral of Col. Dent, from Washington, enjoyed a grand dinner, given by Gen. Harney, after which the gay party left for Washington.

WASHINGTON.

PARDONED KU-KLUX—THE VIRGINIUS UNDER FALSE COLORS.

WASHINGTON, December 22.—Wm. Ramsey, Marion Fowler, and John Whitlock, convicted a year ago of being Ku-Klux, have been pardoned.

Judge Williams' opinion covers a column. He says that the papers of the Virginius were received under false pretences, and that the vessel was in aliens.

Mr. Evarts assumes this case with a full conviction of its justice and legality, as a great lawyer and eminent chief of the republican party, we are gratified that it will be confided to him.

The ages of notable persons now spoken of in France are as follows: President MacMahon, 65; Comte de Chambord, 53; Prince Louis Napoleon, 18; Comte de Paris, 35; Duc de Chartres, 33; Duc de Nemours, 69; Prince de Joinville, 66; Duc d'Aumale, 51; Prince Jerome Napoleon, 51; M. Thiers, 76; M. Gambetta, 37.

Another subsidence took place in the village of Westville, Nova Scotia, which is built over the Acadia Coal Mines, recently. The damage to the buildings is not so extensive as in the former instance, although many houses are badly awry. Much apprehension exists among the inhabitants in consequence of the subsidence.

Lucid and comprehensive was the charge of the Kansas judge: "The evidence shows that he sot up with her night after night, and they sqz ze hands and talked soft, and I think she ought to have about $23 damages." But the jury, in consideration of the low price of corn, reduced it to $1 75.

The annual report of the Librarian of Congress shows that during the year ending the 1st of December, 12,497 volumes were added to the collection, making the total number in the library 238,752 volumes, and about 50,000 pamphlets. There were 15,354 copyrights entered during the year, the fees from which amounted to $13,504.

The Albany Journal says that Gen. W. A. C. Ryan who met his death at the massacre in Cuba by the Spanish a short time since, was engaged to be married to Miss Gebhard, daughter of a prominent citizen of Schoharie county, and a very amiable and accomplished young lady. The nuptials were to have been celebrated on Thanksgiving day.

It appears that Delano, at the instance of the Northern Pacific Railroad, has resolved upon the removal of the Gros Ventres, Mandans, and Rickarees from Fort Berthold to the Indian Territory. The Indians are utterly opposed to leaving their ancestral hunting grounds, which they have defended for centuries, but hemmed in by the Sioux, they are without the power to resist the dictates of the Indian Department, backed by the military.

Alexander Morton, of Louisiana, who represented his State in the United States Senate from 1837 to 1849, has written a letter requesting that his mileage for two Congresses, be sent to him The money is being looked up in the Treasury Department. This circumstance strikingly illustates the fallacy of the doctrine put forth by so many of the sea ary grabbers last summer, that it was not necessary, in order to wash their hands of the stolen money, to cover it into the Treasury.

Another late French encroachment, says the Boston Gazette, is in the shape of a feminine overcoat, having a be que back, with collar of velvet or silk, and being made of warm diagonal cloth, sloping away in true manly fashion over the hips, disclosing a legitimate waistcoat, with good-sized pockets inserted for change, book and glove book, and "sundries." This is made of black drap d'été, cashmere or velvet, and can be worn with any style of waist, coat or polonaise.

The London Times estimates that 74,000,000 bushels of wheat will be required to supply the European market until the crop of 1874 is harvested, and agents from Liverpool, London, Glasgow, and other cities, are now in Chicago and Milwaukee, purchasing wheat. At present prices, if the whole amount should be purchased here and there none to buy elsewhere, it would result in bring about one hundred million dollars.

New Orleans Times: The cotton planters in portions of Texas are entering into a written obligation to reduce the amount of land devoted to next year's cotton crop by at least one-third, in order to secure better prices for the cotton raised, and a better supply of provisions. Throughout the interior of Louisiana and other States provisions are now scarce and high, and cotton is too low to pay the cost of production. Such a condition of things cannot and should not be maintained. The Patrons of husbandry must see to it that an intelligent discrimination is exercised in the choice and extent of crops.

An intelligent correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says that he went into the Cherokee Nation six months ago with his mind filled with stories about horrible outrages committed there, but has traveled over a large part of the Nation's territory without encountering any of the bloodthirsty individuals whom writers in the interest of railroads describe as without number. He has been treated with kindness by all classes, and believes that the Cherokees have been greatly misrepresented. As proof of their progress he cites several laws lately enacted by the National Council, including one for the revision of the code, appropriating $36,000 for public schools, $40,000 for the orphan and insane Asylum, $78,000 for mails and for the contingencies, prohibiting the carrying of fire arms, and appropriating $5,000 to be laid out for education and morals of the Cherokee contingent to the Philadelphia Centennial.

Against a Convention.

The people and press are beginning to arouse.

The Savannah Advertiser and Columbus Times take strong ground against a Convention at this time. Their articles appear to-morrow.

The Georgia Convention.

"One of the propositions which are to be submitted to the Georgia Constitutional Convention is a revival of imprisonment for debt. Progress takes backward jumps down there."—New York Sun.

The above is outside contemporary comment on one of the main objects sought by the advocates of a convention in Georgia.

The wild changes of public policy and law that have been suggested as an inducement to the people to call a convention are enough to alarm any sane man. No wilder or more utterly indefensible and uncivilized project is contemplated for the convention to do than to restore that barbarous relic of the old law—imprisonment for debt.

But Georgia will commit no such folly, nor that of a convention at this time.

Port Royal.

The arrival at this famous harbor of the first of a line of steamers from Liverpool, affords an opportunity for our importers and wholesale merchants which should not be allowed to pass unimproved.

The line differs from other attempts at the direct trade with England so much desired in the South, in a few points not clearly understood among our merchants.

In the first place, the steamers do not depend altogether on their freights via Port Royal. They run to New Orleans, and touch at Port Royal to land and receive freights and for coal. Four thousand tons of coal passed through Atlanta within the last few weeks for their use. Thus their freights are lower than could possibly be afforded if they ran only to and from a new place which has its business to make.

Next, there are no charges for wharfage or drayage at Port Royal. The steamers load directly into the cars, after making the usual entry at the Custom House. Freight thus delivered may be received by through freight cars in Atlanta in twenty-four hours, via the Port Royal and Georgia Railroads. What these charges may amount to is illustrated in the case of a large ship load of cotton ties which was imported for Augusta and Savannah. The ship drew too much water to go to Savannah until she had been lightened by the delivering of a part of her cargo at Port Royal

But she came along side the railroad wharf at Port Royal, at nearly low tide, and discharged the portion of her cargo intended for Augusta directly into the cars, and then proceeded to Savannah. It has been stated, and not contradicted to our knowledge, that the Augusta portion of her cargo cost no more after paying freight over one hundred miles of railroad, than did the Savannah portion delivered at her wharves, after paying all local charges.

It is difficult to direct the current of trade into new channels. Our merchants in the interior, long accustomed to import through New York, Charleston or Savannah merchants, are shy of setting up as importers themselves, although it is evident that to do so successfully will be to put into their own pockets the profits now paid to the importers at our seaports.

Again, all other Southern seaports are limited in the size and draught of vessels frequenting them by the depth of water which may be brought to them. However, there is no such limit at Port Royal. It is the only first-class Atlantic port South of Cape Hatteras, into which any vessel yet built may enter. But freights and insurance rates are less on large vessels, rating A 1, than on smaller ones, thus offering another saving.

Port Royal has to fight its way into notice and importance in spite of the opposition of the well known cities of Charleston and Savannah, lying on either side of it. The local interests of those cities, opposed and rivals in all else, are interested in keeping down and throwing discredit upon the commercial value of any intermediate port, however great may be its natural advantages.

The city of Savannah might, with great advantage to her merchants, use Port Royal for ships of too great draught to come to her wharves, precisely as Leith is the seaport of Edinburgh. The entrance to Port Royal is but eleven miles from the entrance to Tybee Roads, and the pilots and steam tugs of one place could also be those of the other. Why not?

But the main point for the interior cities of the South and Southwest to consider is, how can their grain and cotton be got to a market in the least time and for the least money, and how can they obtain in return those articles of foreign production which they need for consumption at the least expense and in the shortest time.

May not this problem find its solution at Port Royal, and is it not worth while for the merchants of St. Louis, Memphis, Nashville, Atlanta, and other cities lying near the great routes of interior railroad communication with the Southern seaports to look into the matter?

Hon. Nelson Tift on the Convention.

The Augusta Chronicle has been publishing letters on the Convention from certain gentlemen in Georgia. Wherever the writer favors the Convention we have found the letter editorially heralded by our contemporary with an immense flourish of trumpets, and gushing encomiums upon the marvellous ability and patriotism of the writer.

In last Saturday's edition of the Chronicle we found the following brief but very practical letter from the Hon. Nelson Tift, opposing a convention. The letter was modestly sandwitched off in an obscure corner of the paper. After a zealous search in the editorial columns we failed to find any of the customary laudation of the writer's tremendous ability and overflowing patriotism.

In order to atone for the confusion of our contemporary, doubtless entirely unintentional, we reproduce the letter with editorial notice of the writer, and with the strong belief that Colonel Tift merits encomium about as much as some of the other gentlemen so fulsomely praised for utilizing opinions not half so carefully, well considered and applicable as Colonel Tift's.

This seems to indicate, as also the tone of the press from Southwestern Georgia is against a Convention now.

A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION — LETTER FROM HON. NELSON TIFT.

ALBANY, GA., December 13, 1873.

To the Editors of the Chronicle and Sentinel:

I received your letter requesting my views relative to the important question now presented to the people of Georgia for consideration, "shall the Legislature call a Convention for the purpose of amending the instrument known as the Constitution of 1868?" After a careful examination of the subject, my opinion is that a Convention should not be called. The most objectionable part of the Constitution—section 17, article 5, known as the relief section—has been obsolete or void by time and the decisions of the courts. There are other parts of the Constitution which, in my opinion, might be improved by amendment, but there is no other part which could now be changed, without divisions and serious opposition among all classes of our people, including the best citizens; and, judging from the history of conventions, there is room to doubt whether amendments of a new Constitution, favored by any convention which could now be elected, would not contain as many causes of dissatisfaction as the present one. The Constitution under which the State was governed from 1798 down to the time of the late war provided for amendments by a two-thirds vote of two successive Legislatures. Under this provision the Constitution was several times amended and adapted to the wants of the State. There was but one experiment, I believe, to amend by a Convention. In 1868, a Convention was called, elected, met in Milledgeville, discussed, disagreed and adjourned without result. The present Constitution provides the same means of amendment as that of 1798, with the additional requirement that the amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters for final ratification. Under this provision all amendments having the deliberate approval of the people can be adopted, and no others should be. Conventions to change the fundamental law or constitution of a State, should be called only upon the most important and urgent occasions to accomplish necessary protection, which cannot be attained in the ordinary, more safe and less expensive way. Very respectfully, NELSON TIFT.

General Young and the Washington Ring.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 18, 1873.

Editors Constitution: SIR—My attention has been called to a letter from Washington, copied into your paper with editorial comment, calling on me to answer a charge that I am one of the "Washington Ring." At the proper time I will refer my constituents to my votes which are of record. I was at first disposed to denounce the originator of this charge against me. But friends of experience urge me to wait and give him an opportunity to correct his own mistake.

Respectfully,

P. M. B. YOUNG,
Rep. 7th Cong. Dist. of Ga.

WASHINGTON, 19th December, 1873.

Editors Constitution, Atlanta, Ga. — You copied an article from the Courier Journal, in which its Washington correspondent, L. Q. W., speaks of General P. M. B. Young as "one of the friends of the Washington ring."

I was one of the counsel of the Citizens' Association in the investigation before the committee of Congress. Having more leisure than the other counsel, and being personally interested as a large property-holder in Washington, I gave the matter more attention than my associates. Gen. Young being from my own district, I specially noticed his course. So far from being able to discover any special friendship for what was called the "Washington ring," the record shows that he invariably voted against them and with Roosevelt, of New York, and Crebs, of Illinois, the most prominent opponents of the ring.

I know L. Q. W. and have a high regard for him. He is incapable of doing intentional injustice. In this case, so far as General Young is concerned, he has been misinformed. If he does not take an early occasion to correct his mistake and do justice to General Young, he is not the man I have taken him to be.

Yors truly,
BEN. E GREEN,
of Whitfield county, Georgia.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

A Variety of Interesting Matters—The Great Dr. Mary Walker—Mr. Stephens is Going to Speak on Civil Rights—Persons's.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, December 20, 1873.

At the bull fight in Havana half a score or more of animals are killed in a day. Our Representatives are more merciful, and are satisfied with extinguishing one demagogue per diem. The slaughter of Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, was attended with all the tortures to which the bull is put by matadors and picadors; but Sunset Cox faded away and was lost to sight in the twilight, as he fled across land Thursday night, to return to the arena. Ben Butler enacted the part of an infuriated bull and gored and kicked and lunged at Republicans and Democrats alike. You cannot always tell in which direction Butler is looking. but there is never any doubt as to the target at which he lets fly his epithets. Butler is not at all fond of newspaper men, neither is his late distinguished colleague—Hon. John A. Bingham. Mr. Bingham's most endearing epithet for a Washington correspondent was rife, and Thursday night Butler called the occupants of the reporters' gallery venal slanderers and mud-slinging machines of forty jackass power. His speech has not yet appeared in the Congressional Record, but when it is published it will be shorn of all its after dinner extravagances and absurdities. On a former occasion Butler attacked the press and his words were taken by several in the gallery, but when the speech appeared in the Globe, the objectionable remarks had been stricken out. Another time Butler corrected the Globe so extensively that he struck out the remarks of Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, which bore rather severely on himself. It is, therefore, fair to presume that his terrific onslaught Thursday night on pretty much everybody in the House, will be divested of all its spice and strength when it finally gets into print.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

Last session the Radicals attempted to whip and spur a civil rights bill through the House without debate. The Democratic minority, stronger then than now, wanted to be heard on the question, but were refused. They retaliated by filibustering, and were able to defeat the bill. The present civil rights bill, reported from the House Judiciary Committee, was called up by Butler yesterday, and it was his first intention to adopt the tactics of last session and force a vote on the measure before adjournment. He was led to think better of it, however. Mr. Stephens, who had come to the Capital despite the fact that he was physically unable to address the House, protested against this haste, and said he had hoped to be heard on this question. It was finally agreed that the previous question shall be considered as ordered on Monday, the 6th of January, at 4 P. M., allowing Monday's session and Monday afternoon for debate. Mr. Lamar, of Mississippi, will also address the House on this bill, but there will hardly be many speakers on the Democratic side. The passage of the bill is regarded as a pregone conclusion. It concerns all that the colored man can ask, and will fasten the day when the white man will have to take measures for his own protection.

DR. MARY WALKER,

that bifurcated nuisance, has taken to haunting the capitol since she was excluded from the Treasury Department. She bothered Secretary Richardson so that he gave orders to the messenger not to receive her card, and one day after she had insisted on her card being taken in to the Secretary, and the messenger had positively refused to receive it, she turned upon him and said: "I've a great mind to slap your face; you're a contemptible scoundrel." Some one reported the incident to the Secretary, and he promptly issued an order excluding Dr. Mary from the Treasury building. Now, if Congress will only pass a law excluding her from the District we should be happy who dwell in sight of the capitol.

THE HOLIDAY RECESS.

The Senate made a great to-do about taking the customary holiday recess. It contained an immense deal of virtue and patriotism, are without a leader. Mr. Stephens is too pure a man for many of them to follow, and the present condition is not equal to the duties of leader. Hon. Hester Clymer, of Pennsylvania is a man fitted in every way for the position, and Mr. Lamar, of Mississippi, has ability and integrity, but I doubt if he cares to make himself conspicuous. In the absence of a recognized leader, the small fry are coming to the surface. Men who are utterly repudiated by their constituents, who have more brass than brains, and who are reeking with corruption, are assuming the airs of leaders and causing themselves to be announced as such by the hirelings of the press. They do this to command a higher price from the rings which buy their votes, but the imposture deceives no one.

BILLS, ETC., OF INTEREST TO GEORGIA.

The Senate yesterday passed General Gordon's resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for information concrning cotton seized after the war closed.

Mr. Whithorn has introduced a bill in the House to build a canal at Muscle Shoals, Tennessee River.

Mr. Vance has presented joint resolutions of the Legislature of North Carolina asking for a law to refund the tax on cotton for the years 1865, '66. '67, '68.

PERSONAL.

The Georgia Congressional delegation called on Mr. Stephens in a body one day last week, to pay their respects to "the noblest Roman of them all."

Mr. Stephens wears his velvet skull cap while in his seat in the House. It is much more becoming than the black slouch hat he wore at first. Gen. Sibley brought Mr. Stephens a Turkish cap all the way from Egypt.

Gen. Young will probably address THE CONSTITUTION a letter with reference to the accusation that he is a friend of the Washington ring. He says the records show that he has voted against the ring every time.

HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

A majority of the Congressmen started homeward last night, to remain for the holidays. Washington is comparatively deserted, and dullness reigns.

THOMAS HAUCK.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S WIFE

How Mrs. Williams was Married as a Girl, Divorced, Again Married, Widowed and Finally Settled in Life.

Washington Gossip in General

[Correspondence of the Courier-Journal.]

WASHINGTON, December 16, 1873.

Observing the call you make in the Courier Journal for correspondents to enlighten the reading public in regard to the sinister insinuations about Judge Williams obtaining a divorce for the lady who is now his wife, and as I have the particulars, and they contain nothing to the discredit of either party, I do not hesitate to write what I have no doubt is the truth. Mrs. Williams' maiden name was Hughes, and she was born near St. Louis. While still a child, her parents moved to Keokuk, Iowa. At the age of fifteen Mrs. Williams did what many a foolish girl has done before and since that time—ran away and married a man of whom her parents disapproved. The husband was also too young for the responsible duties he had assumed, and before the birth of their child his wife had the most convincing proofs of his infidelity. She was ill and came near dying, but the kind physician who was in attendance took her home to her father's house, and there was a suit brought for divorce. Judge Williams had known her from childhood and granted the divorce.

HER SECOND MARRIAGE.

Mrs. Williams remained single for some years, when she again trusted her happiness into a husband's keeping and made a second mistake. Judge Williams was also married, and the two knew nothing of each other's whereabouts for many years. Mrs. Williams' husband was a drunkard, and they became very poor. Then she took matters in her own hands, left her husband, and opened a school in Oregon. She taught and earned money. One day a letter from California that her husband was dying in a hospital. Nobly she forgot all the sorrow he had caused, and she promptly responded to the call, and nursed him and supplied his wants until his death. After the funeral she returned to her school, which she kept until Judge Williams, who was now a widower,

ASKED HER TO BECOME HIS WIFE.

This was about the time he became United States Senator. This last marriage has proved happy and prosperous. Mrs. Williams' beauty is more than common and of a rare type. Very dark hair, with very blue eyes that have long dark lashes. Her complexion is fair and clear, features good, though not regular. Her form is full, as it should be, after the heyday of youth is passed. She has beautiful neck and arms. She dresses well, though not extravagantly; for, with all the receiving she does and the invitations she accepts, I don't think any winter she has had over six expensive dresses. I know I have seen some of the old ones turned and retrimmed. Mrs. Williams is an admirable housekeeper and manager. She is generous and hospitable. She has always taken in and understood the situation; and, without intrigue, or in any other way but such as a fond and good wife can do without blame, she has used her best endeavors to advance her husband's best interests. She has even gone further, and exerted herself to make the whole Administration popular. Second only to Mrs. Fish has she been in returning all calls and receiving all graciously.

Tennessee News.

The Greenville Union of the 18th inst. says the mountain tops were covered with snow at that date.

Hon. Andrew Johnson, we are informed, has accepted an invitation to address the working men of Nashville.

Dr. Munsey has again returned to his home after a very successful tour of lecturing in Middle and West Tennessee.

During a recent storm near Paris, a negro cabin was blown down and an infant child that was sleeping in the cabin at the time the storm struck it was carried a considerable distance and safely deposited under the restle-work of the railroad, where it was found alive and unhurt next morning.

The Somerville Falcon chronicles this item: "Lucy Lawrence, colored, died at our county poor house Tuesday, the 9th inst., aged 120 years She was once owned by the noted robber, John A. Murrell, who figured so conspicuously in Tennessee and Kentucky many years ago and whose name was once such a terror to our people."

The Knoxville Chronicle of the 18th inst. says: We learn from a reliable source, that on last Sunday, one week ago, Loudermilk was seen at Tellico Plains, and the following Thursday he was skulking around in the forks of the Hiwasee and Tennessee rivers. The same or following night a Mr. Powell, living in that neighborhood, lost a fine horse, and there is no doubt in the minds of the people there, but that Loudermilk stole it. He is certainly one of the most daring robbers East Tennessee has ever been cursed with, but he is most assuredly nearing his end, and will ere long keep Mangrum and the two Mynatts company.

The Clarksville Tobacco Leaf tells the following little tale: "A little girl in the country recently dreamed a new piece of music which she had never seen or heard of—really was never composed, and in her dream studied the music all night. So impressed was it upon her mind that she arose early in the morning, went to the piano, and played it as perfectly as if she had practiced it and had the notes before her. The following night she dreamed a lucky ticket in the Louisville Library Drawing, which promised a fortune to a prominent doctor in the vicinity (the family physician.) She told the doctor of the circumstance, who, by the way, does not 'go much' on dreams, but immediately ordered the number and has received it. Now, we shall know whether there is anything in dreaming or not."

LABORERS ON THE RAMPAGE.

PHILADELPHIA, December 22.—There was considerable excitement along the wharves to-day in consequence of a strike among the laborers. All the steamship lines had given notice that on to-day they would only pay twenty cents per hour. All the men struck, demanding thirty cents per hour, and the American steamship line paid thirty cents in order to unload the steamer Pennsylvania that arrived on Saturday, and the hands continued to work. The Clyde's steamship line had obtained men at twenty cents. The strikers claimed the submission of the American line as a harbinger of success, and seem determined to force those working at lower rates to join the strikers.

DON'T SEND MONEY TO WASHINGTON FOR SEEDS.

WASHINGTON, December 22.—The Commissioner of Agriculture is much annoyed by persons sending money to pay postage on seed, reports, etc., and therefore gives notice that money should never be sent to his department for any purpose.

BANKRUPT DECISION.

A VERY IMPORTANT CASE.

WASHINGTON, December 22.—The Supreme Court to-day rendered the following important decision: No. 96—Wilson, assignee of Bankrupt, Vanderhoff Brothers, appellants, vs. Frost. Certificate of questions from the Circuit Court for Minnesota. In this case Vanderhoff Brothers, during the bank suffer their entire stock of goods to be seized on an execution on a judgment by default obtained against them by the bank, and thus as alleged, fraudulently preferred the bank over their other creditors against the provisions of the bankrupt act, and the assignee sought to have the proceeds of the sale on execution applied to the claims of all the creditors. On these facts the following questions arose on which the Court divided, and they were certified to this Court for answer:

1. Whether or not an interest on the part of the firm to suffer their property to be taken on execution with intent to give a preference to the bank, or with intent to defeat or delay the operations of the Bankrupt act can be inferred from the facts stated.

2. Whether, under the facts, the bank in their proceedings had reasonable cause to believe that a fraud on the Bankrupt act was intended by the firm.

3. Whether, under the circumstances, the bank obtained by the levy and execution a valid lien on the goods as against the assignee in bankruptcy.

In their opinion the Court say something more than the passive non-resistance of an insolvent debtor to regular judicial proceedings in which a judgment and execution are had when the debt is due, and he is without defense to the action, is necessary to show a preferment of a creditor or a purpose to defeat or delay the operation of the bankrupt act. That the fact that the debtor under such circumstance does not file a petition in bankruptcy is not sufficient evidence of such preference or desire to defeat the operation of the act. That though the judgment creditor, in such a case, may know the insolvent condition of the debtor, his levy and seizure are not void under the circumstances nor any violation of the bankrupt law. That a lien thus obtained by him will not be displaced by subsequent proceedings in bankruptcy against the debtor, though within four months of the filing of the bill. These propositions require the questions certified to be answered; the first two in the negative and the third in the affirmative. This decision overrules or largely qualifies what was said by Justice Clifford in delivering the opinion of the court in the case of Buchanan vs Smith at the last term.

THE BANKRUPT LAW.

SENATORIAL CORRESPONDENCE ABOUT ITS AMENDMENT.

WASHINGTON, December 22.—Senator Hitchcock has addressed the following letter to Senator Edmunds, chairman of Judiciary Committee:

UNITED STATES SENATE CHAMBER, WASHINGTON, D. C., December 20, 1873.

Dear Sir: Regretting the failure of the Senate to act prior to the holiday recess upon the bill repealing the bankrupt law, so far at least as to wipe out the present oppressive feature of involuntary bankruptcy, and fearing that it will aggravate financial suffering and add others to the already long list of victims, I desire to obtain your opinion of the feasibility of so amending the bankrupt law as to make the repeal of the oppressive features retroactive, and also your opinion as to the probability of the early passage of such amendments. Your reputation as a lawyer and position as chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee will give weight to your opinion, and such action, if affirmatively given on each of the propositions above named will, I think, go far to relieve public anxiety and prevent useless and oppressive litigation.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) P. W. HITCHCOCK,

To Hon. George F. Edmunds, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Judiciary.

Senator Edmunds replied as follows:

U. S. SENATE CHAMBER, WASHINGTON, D. C., December 22, 1873.

DEAR SIR:—I have received your note of the 20th inst., and will say in reply that I do not profess to speak for any person but myself, of course; but, in so speaking, I have no hesitation in saying that any provision that may be made respecting the forcing of a debtor into involuntary bankruptcy, and the proceedings thereon, will so far as my voice goes, be made retroactive in such a way that no person will gain anything by oppressiveness towards a debtor pending the consideration of the question, as all such matter relate to remedies which Congress may take away altogether if it pleases. There will be no impropriety in making any wise provision which regulates the proceedings to just ends, apply to pending cases, and I feel great confidence that such will be the opinion of the Senate.

Very truly, yours,

GEORGE T. EDMUNDS.

To Hon. P. W. Hitchcock, U. S. Senate.

MIDNIGHT NEWS.

EX-MAYOR HALL ON TRIAL—BROTHER-IN-LAW CASEY—THE GENET CASE.

NEW YORK, December 22.—The trial of ex-Mayor Hall commenced in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day. Seven jurors took their seats subject to peremptory challenge.

Clarence Brown was arrested to-day for stealing trunks from different hotels in the city on false checks.

General Casey, collector at the port of New Orleans, was one of the victims in the Court of Oyer and Terminer this afternoon.

The District Attorney moved for an order against Sheriff Brennan or his deputy, W. J. Shields, to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in disregarding the order of the Court.

In the Genet case the District Attorney said he notified the Sheriff Saturday that Genet might escape, but no attention was paid to the notification. An order returnable at 10 A. M. to-morow was granted.

The latest in regard to the escape of Genet is that he embarked on his own yacht, which had been loaded with provisions and filled with friends in readiness for his flight.

NEW YORK, December 22.—Michael Ryan and sister were found murdered by having their throats cut in a tenement house in Broome street to day. It is supposed robbery was the cause. No clue.

MARINE.

LONDON, December 22.—Arrived at Liverpool—schooner W. L. Burroughs, Charleston. At Dartmouth—bark Louise Wychards from Wilmington for Hamburg. Sailed from Belfast—Fore topsail Queen, for Savannah.

LONDON, December 22.—Arrived—France.

BOSTON, December 23.—United States steamer Franklin sailed for Key West this evening.

SAVANNAH, December 22.—The steamship Oriental, for Boston, has been ashore on the Horseshoe since Sunday morning. Several tugs pulled at her, but were unable to get her off. She will be lightened to-night. Arrived—Tyson, Banks, George Peabody, Catherine Larango, Taylor, Mather, J. C. Thompson, Thomas W. Haves, Nellie H. Bassett, Wm. Wiler, Emma D. Finney, A. J. Tabeau.

Cleared—John Mayal, Paragus, Enrique, Loyal, Edina De Chi, Armada, Hall, Charles Sawyer.

A large British steamship passed the bar and went into Port Royal.

VIOLENT LABOR STRIKE.

PHILADELPHIA, December 22.—The strike of laborers on the wharves, visiting the different steamships, was renewed to-day, to compel the men to accept their terms. One man was seriously beaten.

FOREIGN.

TWELVE NEW CATHOLIC CARDINALS—FRENCH TROUBLES.

ROME, December 22.—In the Consistory to-day the Pope delivered an allocution and appointed twelve Cardinals.

LONDON, December 22.—Hon. St. Gillary Piggott, Baron of Exchequer, is dead.

PARIS, December 22.—In the Assembly to-day several members alluded to the imperfect postal arrangements between France and the United States, and urged the government to hasten the signing of the pending convention. They complained of the present situation declaring it to be injurious to French commerce, and intolerable to the people at large. The Financial Secretary replied that it was the earnest desire of the Washington government to harmonize the interests of the two countries, and that a speedy understanding is expected.

THE HAGUE, December 22.—A dispatch from Panang, dated December 20, announces that the Dutch troops have occupied both banks of the river running through Achien. The Sultan seeing defeat inevitable, has given in his submission to the Dutch Commonwealth.

THE VIRGINIUS.

A HOME THRUST BY A SPANISH JOURNAL—THE SPANISH DEBT IN CUBA.

HAVANA, December 23. The Diario in announcing that the government at Washington has recognized the fact that the Virginius was not entitled to carry the American flag, says: After this acknowledgment not the slightest doubt ought to remain that the Virginius was a legal prize and her crew were pirates, whom the Spanish court justly treated as such; and the demands of the United States were unjust and unfounded. We now expect that the United States will grant the reparation due to Spain, and we hope, also, that Spain will present other claims against the United States. In Junta to-day a statement of the debt of the island was presented; a plan to arrange the financial affairs and solve the financial question was also presented. They will submit another plan. The debt of the island is $97,000,000; notes of the Spanish bank in circulation $104,000,000.

The government authorizes railroad companies to charge rates of freight and passengers in gold or its equivalent in paper. This shows the government is averse to proclaiming a forced paper circulation.

The steamer Moro Castle, from New York arrived this morning.

HO! FOR CHRISTMAS.

To Advertisers.

Bring your advertisements for the Christmas issue. Make it one of the mammoth daily edition of THE CONSTITUTION. It goes everywhere—to the mansions of the rich and the humbler homes of the poor. There is no other medium of advertisements as cheap as the newspaper, and THE CONSTITUTION far surpasses any other such medium in Atlanta. It is read everywhere, we repeat. Send in your advertisements to-day.

CURE FOR NOT TO COUGH.—Now is the winter of discontent made desponding gloom by an unusual cough. To cough or not to cough, that's the question. Whether it is better to bear the cough here or fly at once to that remedial conqueror of such ills—Globe Flower Cough Syrup—is absolute to disperse the cough by the medium of a cough. Globe Flower Cough Syrup and a cough cannot exist in the same body. As immutably as the result is always the same. The cough must get out. oct26-1t

Letters by Hundreds Pouring in

There has been a general idea that our Distribution would be postponed, because it is often done. But when, on the day announced, we promptly turned over the entire matter to our Commissioners, and the day being appointed by them for the Distribution we declared that no postponement, under any circumstances, should take place, our subscribers realized the fact and are coming quickly in with a rush. When we say this we mean it, as our columns daily witness by seeing our books. Yesterday, for a time, promised to surpass any previous day in receipts, the amount from subscriptions nearly reaching a thousand dollars. We urge our old subscribers to forward, at once, some surely get large gifts, and all get something.

We select a few letters from a hundred or more lying before us.

A PLEASANT REUNION.—Last evening the employees of Longley & Robinson gave those enterprising gentlemen a supper at Tim C. Murphy's restaurant. The prime mover in getting up these reunions was Mr. Wash Dyer.

The supper was served up by Tim Murphy in his inimitable style. It was a splendid repast, nothing being omitted that could give zest to the appetite or satisfy the palate of the most epicurean.

Mr. James Gillum sang a love song, detailing a courtship under an umbrella, in a capital style, which brought down the house in roars of applause.

Mr. J. A. Johnson, we didn't say that he was bare footed on the top of his head," W. A. Jernigan, Mr. Noise, Mr. McBride, Mr. Larrabee, and Mr. Livey, the foreman, in response to calls, made appropriate and telling speeches. It was a pleasant reunion.

A song and sentiment and toasts were interchanged until a late hour.

A general re-union of all the mechanics of Atlanta was suggested and met with general approval. We think it a good suggestion and hope that it will be carried into effect at an early day. We wish Messrs. Longley & Robinson and their employees many happy returns of these re-unions.

Senatorial Transportation Committee.

The committees met at the Hall of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. Hon David Mayer presided. Messrs. John Stephens, Alderman John M Boring and General A J. McBride were appointed a committee to wait upon the Governor. They make the following announcement:

Senator Windom and his committee will certainly be here on next Wednesday, and in view of this fact every member of the committee is requested to meet at the time and place above named, as business of importance will be under consideration.

Fulton Superior Court.

Fulton Superior Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning, Judge John L Hopkins presiding.

Laura Davis was found not guilty of the charge of perjury preferred against her.

In the case of Harry Lewis, convicted of gaming, the sentence of six months on the chain gang was suspended until the 27th inst., and if in the meantime the fine of $250 is paid, he will be discharged from custody.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Jesse Jones, Administrator, vs C. T. Cox, was overruled.

Jethro W Manning was appointed guard an ad litem, for each and all of the minor defendants in the case of C. M. Payne et al. vs. I. M. Payne et al.

The case of J E. Brown vs. the Atlanta and West Point Railroad was marked settled by the parties.

The case of the State vs. A. L. Harris, for gaming, was taken up for trial. The following jury was empanelled: W H Weems, foreman, J Smith, W H Roach, O C Archer, A Hilton, W Gray, T A Morris, E Fechter, W T Forsythe, G G Cook, N Lyon. There being quite an array of legal talent on both sides. The charge grows out of the State Road muddle under Bullock's administration, and the case will likely occupy a day or two.

The jury in the Bridel case are still out.

Only five city arrests last night—all "Benzine Belligerent" cases.

THE ATLANTA GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL

Interesting Exercises—The Browning Society—Speeches by Governor Brown, Dr. Wills, David Mayer, M. C. Blanchard, Ald. Langston and Others.

Yesterday, a number of our citizens, with most of the Board of Education, visited the Girls' High School. The several classes were examined first in their regular studies by their respective teachers; then followed the reading of compositions by several of the pupils, when the visitors were given an opportunity to examine the papers made up from written exercises in answer to questions propounded by superintendent Mallon on that portion of their studies passed over during the last week. The time allotted to each class to write out these answers was from one to three hours. And as strange as it may appear we did not see a blot on a single one of these, so to speak, compositions. On the contrary they were all methodically and neatly gotten up, and a majority of them clearly and correctly expressed, and not half as many words spelt wrong as we judge would have been noticed in as many articles of the same length by grown persons. Several of these were written in French and Latin, while natural philosophy, chimestry, algebra, physical geography, &c., each received more than a passing glance.

After all had satisfied their curiosity in examination of these marvelously good papers, speeches were made by Governor Brown, Hon. David Mayer and M. C. Blanchard, of the Board of Education, Rev David Wills, Ald. J. N Langston and others. All concurred in the opinion that this branch of our public school system was a success, and should be fostered.

Alderman J. N. Langston candidly admitted that he came to the High School with much reluctance, as he had entertained an opinion that the grammar schools was as far as we should go, but since witnessing the exercises and workings of the system he was convinced that it was the cap-stone to our peerless public school system, and he would leave with greater reluctance than he came with. He regretted that he had ever opposed the high schools, and from hence forth he would be found giving them his earnest support. If those who opposed them would only attend their exercises, they would be satisfied to give up their opposition.

The exercises of the "Browning Society" were, as usual, exceedingly interesting. The fair President presides with a grace and dignity that would honor the White House itself. The papers and readings by the members of the Society show careful mental training and culture. The "Browning Society" is now one of our fixed institutions, and we hope at an early day to see it have one of the best library's in the South.

The closing exercises of the Boy's High School takes place to-day at their hall, corner Whitehall and Hunter streets. Everybody is invited and we urge all to attend. Don't fail to examine their papers. You will be well repaid for your trouble, and we venture the assertion that you will leave the school as strong a friend of the High Schools as Alderman Langston, who is recognized as one of our most vigilant and intelligent city Fathers.

WILSON'S Herald of Health and Farm and Household Help, for December, is full of useful and interesting information, and should be in every family. Address SOUTHERN PUBLISHING CO.

RECEPTION.—The friends assembled on Wednesday evening, at the hospitable mansion of Col Harris to meet Henry Harris, Jr., and his charming bride, spent a most pleasant and delightful evening. His warmest friends captivated with the ease, grace and dignity of his fair lady, unanimously voted Hal's matrimonial venture a decided success. One of our bach-lor friends in the height of his admiration desired to know if Atlanta's belles were generally as lovely and accomplished as Mrs. Harris. From what we witnessed the same evening we should not be surprised to hear that some of our Greenville friends were visiting Covington on business at an early day.—Greenville Vindicator.

Bro. Revill, tell your bachelor friends to come up and join the "Panic" or some of the other social clubs.

OUR HAND.—We learn that all the star performers engaged for the Wootten & Andrews great Southern show are now in Atlanta, and everything is in readiness for the promised carnival of the 24th and 25th instant. Its gilded dens of wild animals, with banners flying, led by the gorgeous chariot, with its twenty skilled musicians, drawn by elegantly caparisoned blood horses, together with the trick elephant, camels and bison from the prairie all in line of procession, will be a feature of exciting interest.

Great pains have been taken to combine in its gymnastic department an array of aerobic marvels, muscular genius, grace and wit. Its performing animals we hear exhibit a great degree of intelligence, while its congress of beasts and aviary of birds are truly interesting.

MRS. ECKFORD'S MUSIC CLASS.—Owing to the inclemency of the weather last night, and the indisposition of several members of Mrs. Belle Eckford's music class, the proposed soiree did not take place, but a rehearsal was given instead. A fair audience was assembled at DeGive's to witness the rehearsal. The regular programme was not adhered to, but several pieces were played and sung. Mr and Mrs. J. W. Scott gave several of their inimitable readings. The performance will come off at DeGive's next Tuesday night. Tickets sent out for last night will be good next Tuesday night.

THE GEORGIA ZOUAVES.—This company elected non-commissioned officers last night, with the following result:

First Sergeant—J. C. Maher. Sergeants—J L McIntosh, P. Sheridan, A. W. Bargdorf, Frank Sheran.

Color Sergeant George A. Wallace.

Quartermaster Sergeant—Michael J. Emil.

Corporals—Alfred P. Cassis, J .T. Morgan, Edgar C. Shivers, Levi Summers.

Secretary and Treasurer—L H. Alexander.

RIP VAN WINKLE.—The inimitable Joe Jefferson will give only one performance at DeGive's this year—to-morrow night—in his peerless rendition of Rip Van Winkle. The sale of reserved seats will begin this morning at nine o'clock at Phillips & Crew's. There was quite a demand for seats yesterday, although none could be had.

ATLANTA MEDICAL AND SURGICAL JOURNAL.—The December number of the above periodical is on our table. It is handsomely printed by W. R. Barrow, printer. Its table of contents is varied and interesting. Dr. Robert Battey, editor, Drs. W. A. Love and T. H. Taliaferro, associates. Terms $3 per annum.

Carnival Faints.

At last accounts Wootten & Andrews' Great Southern Show was at Columbus, Ga., and will be at Atlanta on the 24th and 25th inst. Everybody should go to see the Circus. Admission 50 cents. Children under 10 years of age, 25 cents. Reserved seats 75 cents. Private boxes $1 50. Doors open at 1 and 6 p. m. Performance to commence one hour afterwards. Tickets for sale at Phillips & Crew's, No. 1 Marietta street.

THE annual meeting of the stockholders of the East Point Jug Factory Company takes place to-day. Each stockholder will be presented with a Christmas jug, after Colonel J. D. Robinson, superintendent, reads his report.

THE St. Louis News suggests that as the name of clergymen officiating in marriages are given, that with equal propriety, in obituary notices, the name of the attending physician should be given.

The Liver is more frequently the seat of disease than is generally supposed, for upon its regular action depends, in a great measure, the powers of the Stomach, Bowels and Brain, and the whole nervous system. Why Will Ye Die?—Death, or what is worse, is the inevitable result of continued suspension of the menstrual flow. It is a condition which should not be trifled with. Immediate relief is the only safeguard against constitutional ruin. In all cases of suppression, suspension or other irregularity of the courses," Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. It acts by giving tone to the nervous centres, improving the blood and determining directly to the organs of menstruation. It is a legitimate prescription, and the most intelligent Doctors use it. Prepared by J. H. Bradfield, druggist, Atlanta, Ga; $1 50 per bottle, and sold by respectable druggists everywhere.

"Used Up."—What is the precise meaning of this familiar phrase when employed to signify an unnatural condition of body and mind? It means exhaustion, languor, want of vital energy, mental apathy—a pitiable state of physical and mental helplessness. The best, and in fact the only perfectly reliable panacea for a "used up" system is that most popular and potent of medical stimulants, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. No matter whether the health has been broken down by excessive labor, over study, an insalubrious atmosphere, anxiety, irregularities in diet, dissipation, or any other cause, this powerful and pleasant vegetable restorative will soon recruit the drooping energies of nature, restoring the integrity of the nerves, and re-establishing that functional regularity which is essential to animal vigor and a hopeful frame of mind. As a cure for debility, in all its varied manifestations, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unapproached by any tonic in the Materia Medica.

Dr. Calhoun's Liver Pills.

I am engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last thirty-five years, and has taken precedence over all other Family Preparations, by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 50 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from Druggists, Merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of Fever, Dysepsia, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Cholera, Morbus, Billiousness and Sick Headache, or other diseases of a Southern climate, but yields readily to this preparation.

DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS

THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE,
THAT AT THE SAME TIME
PURGES, PURIFIES AND STRENGTHENS THE SYSTEM.

Dr. Tutt's Pills are composed of many ingredients. Prominent among them are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united as to act together; the one through its adjuncts with other substances, purifying and purging; while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a cathartic, a desideratum long sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of for they remove nothing from the system but impurities so that while they purge they also strengthen, and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction.

Dr. Tutt's Pills have a wonderful influence on the blood. They not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this most excellent medicine, which never strains or tortures the digestive organs, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but on the contrary, while all impurities are being removed, the combined action of the Sarsaparilla and wild cherry purifies and invigorates the body, and a robust state of health is the result of their united action. Price 27 cents a box. Sold by all Druggists. Depot 48 Courtland street, New York.

Author of "Ting-a-Ling," "Roundabout Rambles," etc. Mr. Stockton is one of the best of our American Writers. The scene of the story is laid in Virginia. The boy-hero has started out with a gun on his shoulder, and we may be sure there will be no end of fun and adventures.

"NIMPO'S TROUBLES"
A Story for Girls,
By OLIVE THORNE (Mrs. Harriet M. Miller.)

A great favorite with the children. It is a good, strong, wholesome story of girl life, and will be full of interest for both boys and girls.

"FAST FRIENDS,"
By J. T. TROWBRIDGE,

One of the most popular writers for young folks in America. Readers of "Jack Hazard," "A Chance for Himself," and "Doing his Best," will understand what a capital treat is in store for them in Mr. Trowbridge's new story. All these Stories will be Splendidly Illustrated.

"JIMMYJOHN STORIES,"
By Mrs. ABY MORTON DIAZ,

Author of "The William Henry Letters," "William Henry and his Friends," and "Lucy Maria" (who has the rare and happy gift of knowing how to delight young people,) will appear during the year. There will also be Shorter Stories, Papers on Science and History, Natural History, Wild Sports and Adventures, Sketches of Travel, Fairy Tales, Poems, Puzzles, Charades, Jingles, Fun and Fancy, Instruction, Entertainment and Delight. Something for all, from Father and Mother to the Baby. The Illustrations will be the best that the Artists of two continents can supply, and will be printed with the greatest care.

FOR VERY LITTLE FOLKS.

Our pages in big type and easy words for the youngest readers, which have been "a hit" from the first, will be continued. The children will be glad to know also, that the department of

is to be a permanent feature of the magazine. Jack will tell some of the most curious things ever heard, and make himself generally entertaining.

We have undertaken to make the best magazine possible, for the little folks, as well as those who are older. Every number of St. Nicholas will contain good reading matter for boys and girls of all ages, besides a great deal of hearty and innocent fun.

Christmas comes but once a year, but St. Nicholas, the new magazine for girls and boys, comes every month. It has already won the hearts of the young folks, and the little Children are Crying for St. Nicholas.

WE WANT 100,000

Children and Youth Made Happy
BY ST. NICHOLAS AT THE HOLIDAYS.

St Nicholas, as enlarged, contains one-third more matter than Our Young Folks, thus giving a great variety for all. With its great Literary and Pictorial Attractions, and its beautiful Printing, it will be found to be the Cheapest Magazine in the World.

Subscription Price, $3 a year. The back numbers for November and December, 1873, will be sent to all subscribers for 1874, without additional charge. Four Months for ONE DOLLAR; twenty-five cents a Number. For sale and subscriptions received by all Booksellers and News Dealers on the above terms.

Money may be sent to us in checks, payable to our order, or in Post-Office Money Orders, or in Registered Letters. Money in Letters not Registered, at sender's risk.
